

Bishop Ludden Junior Senior High School Summer Reading 2018

All students are required to read ONE novel from the appropriate list below and complete one reading journal once you have read your novel of choice. These journals will become part of their first marking period English Language Arts grade. Journals should include a plot summary, description of characters and setting, analysis of figurative language found in the novel and your own reaction to the text. This journal should be no longer than one page (12 font, double spaced) and is due on the first day of classes to your English Teacher. AP English Lang and AP US History students do not need to do this summer reading. In addition, Fr. Dan requires that all juniors read the essay, "Civil Disobedience" by Thoreau and seniors read "Sophie's World" a novel about the history of philosopher by Jostein Gaarder.
